

PCHA Classic Ranch Riding Equitation Horsemanship Class

The Classic Ranch Riding Equitation Horsemanship Class gives riders the opportunity to exhibit a working partnership between themselves and their horse, build courage, determination and the desire to pursue excellence.

The new PCHA Classic Ranch Riding Horsemanship Class is a version of the Ranch Riding pattern with an additional emphasis on Horsemanship. It invites Amateurs and Youth to compete for a Special Award. One designated Pattern will be used throughout the entire year (No Rail Work) to qualify. Different patterns will be used for the Finals. Rider must compete in this class at 3 horse shows to be qualified for the Finals.

The same horse must be ridden through all phases of the competition. However, due to illness or injury of the horse a rider may petition to ride a substitute horse. This petition must be submitted, along with a Veterinary certification and approved by the PCHA Western Committee.

Rider Horse, Owner and Trainer must be current members of PCHA prior to riding in this class for any points to count.

Final placings will be first to tenth. The rider with the highest total combined score (Ranch Riding and Equitation) will be the champion. If a tie occurs at the Finals, a tie breaking designated judge will be picked before the start of the finals.

Section 8. PCHA Classic Ranch Riding Horsemanship Class

A. General

This class is open to junior and amateur riders of any age who are current PCHA members riding currently registered PCHA horses. Trainers of the riders must also be current PCHA members.

The Classic Ranch Riding Horsemanship Class gives riders the opportunity to exhibit a working partnership between themselves and their horse, build courage, determination and the desire to pursue excellence.

The new PCHA Classic Ranch Riding Horsemanship Class is a version of the Ranch Riding pattern with an additional emphasis on Horsemanship. One designated Pattern will be used throughout the entire year. (No Rail Work) Different patterns will be used for the Finals. The Ranch riding scoring system will be used as well as an equitation box on the score sheet. One (1) judge will be used for qualifying classes and two (2) judges will be used at the Finals.

The same horse must be ridden through all phases of the competition. However, due to illness or injury of the horse a rider may petition to ride a substitute horse. This petition must be submitted, along with a Veterinary certification and approved by the PCHA Western Committee.

B. Qualifying

In order to qualify for the championship, you must ride in this class at three (3) horse show prior to the championship show. Points will NOT be used for qualifying purposes.

C. Show Approval

Permission to hold this class be obtained from the PCHA office. The fee to hold this class is $25. The show management shall not charge an entry fee greater than that charged for any other class with no prize money plus $10.

At non-PCHA shows, a $50 per show fee will be charged in addition to the $25.00 per class fee. Non-PCHA shows which offer PCHA Classic Ranch Riding Horsemanship qualifying classes only are exempt from the $5.00 PCHA horse fee. (Refer to Rule IX, Part I, Sect 6, page 33.) Management is responsible for turning in $10 per horse/rider combination fee to PCHA. 70% of these fees will be used to help fund the Classic Ranch Riding Horsemanship Class

D. Finals

Upon riding in a qualifying class at three (3) horse show, prior to the championship show, the horse/rider combination is qualified for the Finals at which time the rider, horse, owner and trainer must be PCHA members.

Finals will be held once a year at a PCHA-designated horse show.

Final placings will be first to tenth. If a tie occurs at the Finals, a tie breaking designated judge will be picked before the start of the Finals.
